COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES

Brussels, 22.9.2009
COM(2009) 492 final

2009/0133 (ACC)

Proposal for a

COUNCIL DECISION

on the signing of the Framework Agreement on comprehensive Partnership and Cooperation between the European Community and its Member States, of the one part, and the Republic of Indonesia, of the other part

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

In November 2004, the Council authorized the Commission to negotiate individual Framework Agreements on Partnership and Cooperation (PCA) with Thailand, Indonesia, Singapore, The Philippines, Malaysia and Brunei. Negotiations with Indonesia started in 2005 and were concluded in June 2007. Following the endorsement by Coreper, the Commission initialled the PCA in July 2007. Indonesia followed in July 2009 after the EU flight ban for Indonesian air carriers was partially lifted.

The PCA with Indonesia will create a modern framework for the bilateral relations between the Parties which is currently governed by the 1980 EEC-ASEAN Agreement. It contains a legally binding commitment by Indonesia on the respect of human rights as well as obligations in the area of counter-terrorism and weapons of mass destruction, based on internationally accepted standards. Indonesia has also agreed to a clause committing itself to accede to the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court.

The PCA provides for cooperation opportunities in a wide range of areas such as environment and climate change, energy, science and technology as well as maritime and aviation transport. The PCA also addresses issues in the area of illegal migration, money laundering, illicit drugs, organized crime and corruption. Finally, the PCA constitutes the framework for FTA negotiations with countries of ASEAN consistent with the Council conclusions on the ASEAN FTA mandate, whereby the conclusion of an FTA will be subject to the conclusion of PCAs with the respective countries.

Politically, the agreement with Indonesia will serve as a milestone for PCAs with other countries in the region. The PCA will allow the EU to assume greater responsibility and influence in a region which traditionally tends to be orientated towards and influenced by China and the US. By virtue of the PCA, the EU will promote European values and enhance concrete cooperation in a wide range of areas of mutual interest. Finally, the Agreement will be regarded as a positive example for a partnership of civilizations, given that Indonesia is the third most populous country in Asia and the largest Muslim country in the world.
